MARDI GRAS GOODIESMARDI GRAS LEMONADE

- 9 Lemons freshly squeezed (1 ½ cup)
5-6 cups of water
10 oz. package of frozen strawberries, pureed
(can use fresh strawberries)
Sugar to taste

Combine lemon juice, water and ¾ of the strawberry puree. Add sugar until you have reached the desired tartness/sweetness. Add the rest of the strawberry puree until the strawberry/lemon taste balance is equal.

Mardi Gras Lemonade is very refreshing and gives much energy.

HAM AND SAUSAGE JAMBALAYA

- 2 tablespoons vegetable oil
1 package of kielbasa
2 large onions
1 medium green pepper
1 cup chopped celery
2 cloves of minced garlic
3 cups of chicken broth
1 can diced tomatoes
½ pound of cooked ham
1 bay leaf
1 teaspoon of Tabasco sauce
½ teaspoon thyme
1/8 teaspoon of ground allspice
1 ½ cups uncooked rice

Heat the oil in a saucepan, add the sausage, onions, green pepper, celery, garlic and cook until the vegetables are tender. Then you add the chicken broth, tomatoes, ham, bay leaf, Tabasco, thyme and allspice. Cook for 15 minutes then add the rice and cook for another 15 minutes.

Mardi Gras sticks to the tradition that spicy food is great for the stomach. You may want to have a little milk on hand if you or your guests have sensitive mouths, but it is guaranteed the taste is exceptional.
